Announcing the Tech Data Turkey Cert Rebate!

U.S. Business Partners
Earn exclusive Tech Data rewards for completing IBM Certifications by November 30

We are excited to announce our Turkey Cert Rebate Incentive to support IBM partner revalidation and Cloud Pak focused growth. Tech Data would like to reward your firm's efforts to get technical certifications completed & reported quickly.

- Tech Data will reward $1,000 for the first 20 Cloud Pak Technical Certs passed and reported to IBM. Cloud Pak Technical certification must state "Cloud Pak" in the technical certification name.
- Tech Data will reward $500 for the first 20 IBM Focused Product Technical Certs passed and reported to IBM. Only qualifying tests listed in the IBM Focus test list are eligible.
- Partners must nominate for certification participation.
- Once Certification is completed, partners must supply a copy of firm's IBM Skills Report from PartnerWorld.
- All certifications must be completed by November 30, 2020 and displaying in firm's IBM Skills Report.

All partners nominated to achieve tech certs for $250 will be automatically rolled into the Turkey Cert Rebate challenge
